

PHILOSOPHY

The selection of wine on the following pages maintains the same element of care, selection and focus that all products at Park House attain.

We have focused on the provision of wines that highlight the integrity of varietal and regional expressions. The procuring of some of the worlds rarest and most prestigious wines can be intensely rewarding, however we find it necessary to employ a very strict selection process to establish that the provenance of each bottle is of the highest quality.

The development of relationships; relationships with our suppliers, our staff and our guests help to achieve a more complete level of understanding and application to use this list to provide an exceptional vinous experience.

Every time you have the occasion to enjoy a glass of wine is an opportunity to experience something new; I would encourage you to engage with our staff to maximise your enjoyment of this selection of wine. Enjoy the Journey

Adam Pledger, Managing Director

In the interests of reducing the environmental impact of having a wine list with so many pages, we restrict the reprinting to once a week.
As products become unavailable we will remove the price from the list to keep you as informed as possible.
